

Lappin to perform at Carnegie Hall

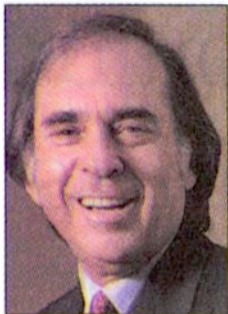

Bob Lappin, director of the Palm Beach Pops, will perform at a concert preceding the New York Pops 23rd anniversary gala May 8 at Carnegie Hall in New York. The 7 p.m. concert, 88 Keys for Skitch, celebrates the life of the late Skitch Henderson.

Joining Lappin will be Liza Minnelli, Darlene Love, Kid rock and the cast of Broadway hit Jersey Boys. The evening will be hosted by Elaine Stritch and Van Cliburn, honorary chairman of the gala.

Lappin will close the first half of the concert, in which he will perform Strings of Fire, Long Ago and Far Away and The Man I Love.

Concert tickets range from $55 to $85 and can be ordered by calling (212) 247-7800 or visiting www.carnegiehall.org.
